

Robinson Crusoe Meets the Ritz

Photo: D. Hebert

Pampered tranquility envelops you when you greet your morning with delicious egg strata served on your waterfront deck. This exquisite gem of a resort is only minutes from the

Mark and Cate Stephenson

Tortola airport but Cate and her husband Mark have created such a unique oasis you will feel like you were beamed into the Garden of Eden.

Tucked around the bougainvillea, four separate luxurious villas offer privacy and spectacular views of the water. A few steps away you have your own white sand beach where the silence is interrupted only by the gentle movement of the waves. Private candle-lit dinners are served in the Zen pagoda or enjoyed in the privacy of your villa. Romance, solitude and soul rejuvenation...

if any of these happen to be on your 'to do' list, this is the place to be.

From snorkeling to a private manicure, the staff can plan every aspect of your visit or leave you on your own to do whatever you choose. If staying

'unwired' for too long makes you twitch, there is high speed internet available, but after Cate's oceanside yoga class you may opt instead for a beach walk along the remote nature trail.

Photo: Cate Stephenson

Check out Surfsong Villas. It will be the vacation of your life.

surfsong
villa resort

(284) 495-1864

Spring and Summer Rates

Villas $2100 per week

Nightly rate, $350

www.surfsong.net

BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Healey, Surfsong's dog in residence, is fishing. Yes, really fishing. She stalks her prey and pounces.

Photos: Kim Corkran

SPRING 2008

The vacation of your life.

Photo: Cate Stephenson

*Swim
Eat
Relax
in a Tortola Paradise*

Photos: Kim Cokran